

Mr Willis's reading group

Monday 18th May: all week!

EXPRESS YOURSELF

Using an iPad or a digital camera (or you could sketch them if you prefer) make faces of the emotions the main characters would have gone through in the book you are currently reading and take photos of them. (If you do not want to take photos of yourself, you could persuade parents, siblings...) Aim for a minimum of 6 emotions, if you can.

Put them together in a document on your computer or device (or in your journal if you'd prefer). Explain the emotion below the image, when the character would have felt this way and what occurred to cause this emotion. You could also, in an alternate colour, consider how you would have reacted - would your emotion have been similar? Why? Do you think the character overreacted?

This is an excellent opportunity to use some creative direction for this task. Be sure to play around with the images, filters and graphical styling - you could really go to town on this!

It is up to you how you organise your time, but this is a task that you can spread out over the entire week... I look forward to seeing your ideas!

Mr. Willis
